let's learn about Ḥajj

designed by Umm Mu'aadh

A fun and meaninfgul way to learn about Ḥajj!
Stories, puzzles, mazes and more.

Introduction to Parents

Long ago, the Prophets of Allāh journeyed across deserts and mountains in answer to Allāh's call to Ḥajj. They came with hearts full of love, hope, obedience, and trust in Allāh.

This little book was designed to help children step into that beautiful journey. Through stories, activities, colouring pages, mazes, duʿā prompts, and hands-on learning, children will discover the beauty of the days of Ḥajj and the remarkable stories connected to them.

From Ādam ʿAlayhi al-Salām building the Kaʿbah, to Hājar Raḍiya Allāhu ʿAnhā running between Ṣafā and Marwah, to Ibrāhīm and Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhimā al-Salām obeying Allāh with complete trust, and the unforgettable Farewell Ḥajj of Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ, they will learn about the rites of Ḥajj and the stories from our history that inspired them.

This book is not only meant to entertain little hands, but also to awaken little hearts, to teach them our sacred Dīn and to spark a love for acts of ʿIbādah, as well as for the noble Prophets of Allāh and their families.

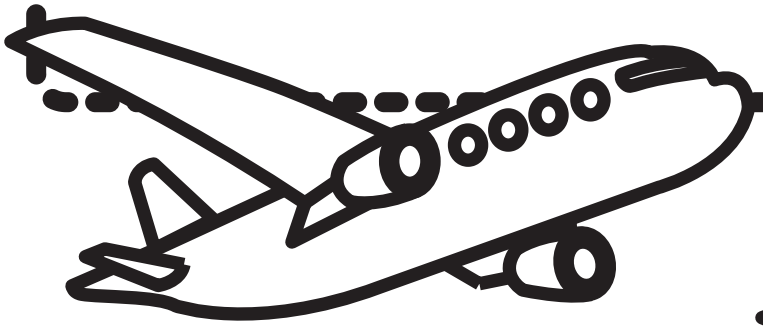

Read the stories slowly together and reflect on the lessons. Recite the Talbiyah aloud. Make duʿā together on the Day of ʿArafah. Let your Mini Muslim colour, trace, count, stick, and explore while building a deep love for Allāh, His Prophets, and obedience to Him.

This book was designed to be printed on A4 paper. Set your printer settings to "Fit to Page" before printing. Certain pages with a tape design at the top are intended to be joined together before colouring in to complete the picture.

May this book plant a lifelong love for Ḥajj in the hearts of our Mini Muslims.

Mini Muslim,
get ready for a journey like no other!

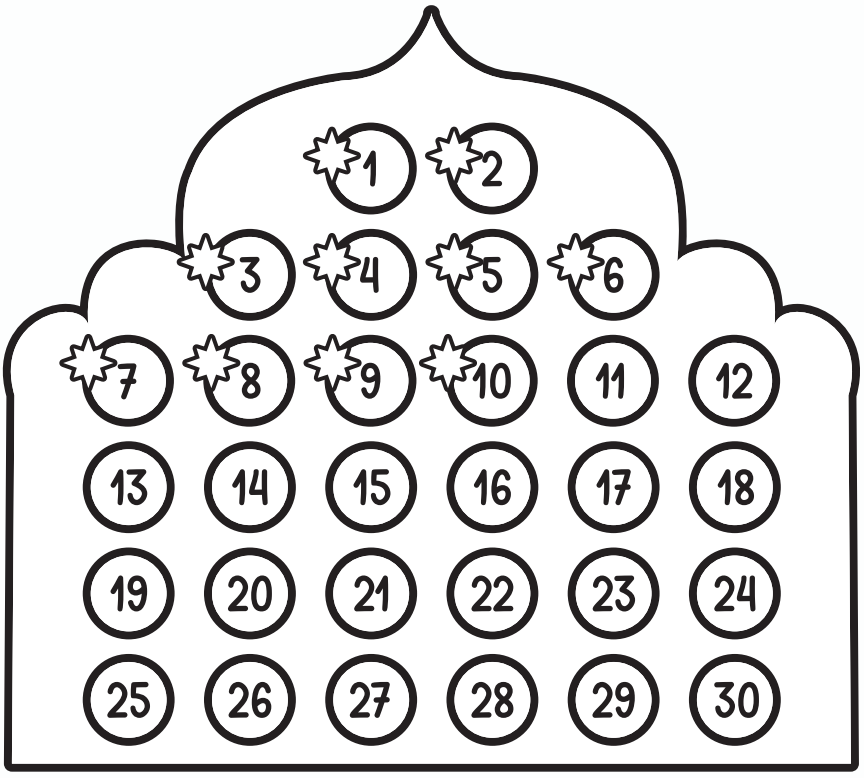

Ḥajj is a very special journey that Muslims make once a year. Allāh invites special people to make their way to the blessed land of Makkah. When the month of Dhū al-Ḥijjah sets in, they excitedly prepare themselves. In Makkah, they perform many acts of ʿIbādah which we will learn about soon.

There are 4 months in the Islāmic calendar that are sacred and very important. They are called the Ashhur al-Ḥurum and are marked with stars. Can you find them?

The Days of Ḥajj

From the eighth to the thirteenth of Dhū al-Ḥijjah, all the Muslims making Ḥajj - called the Ḥujjāj- perform the acts of Ḥajj.

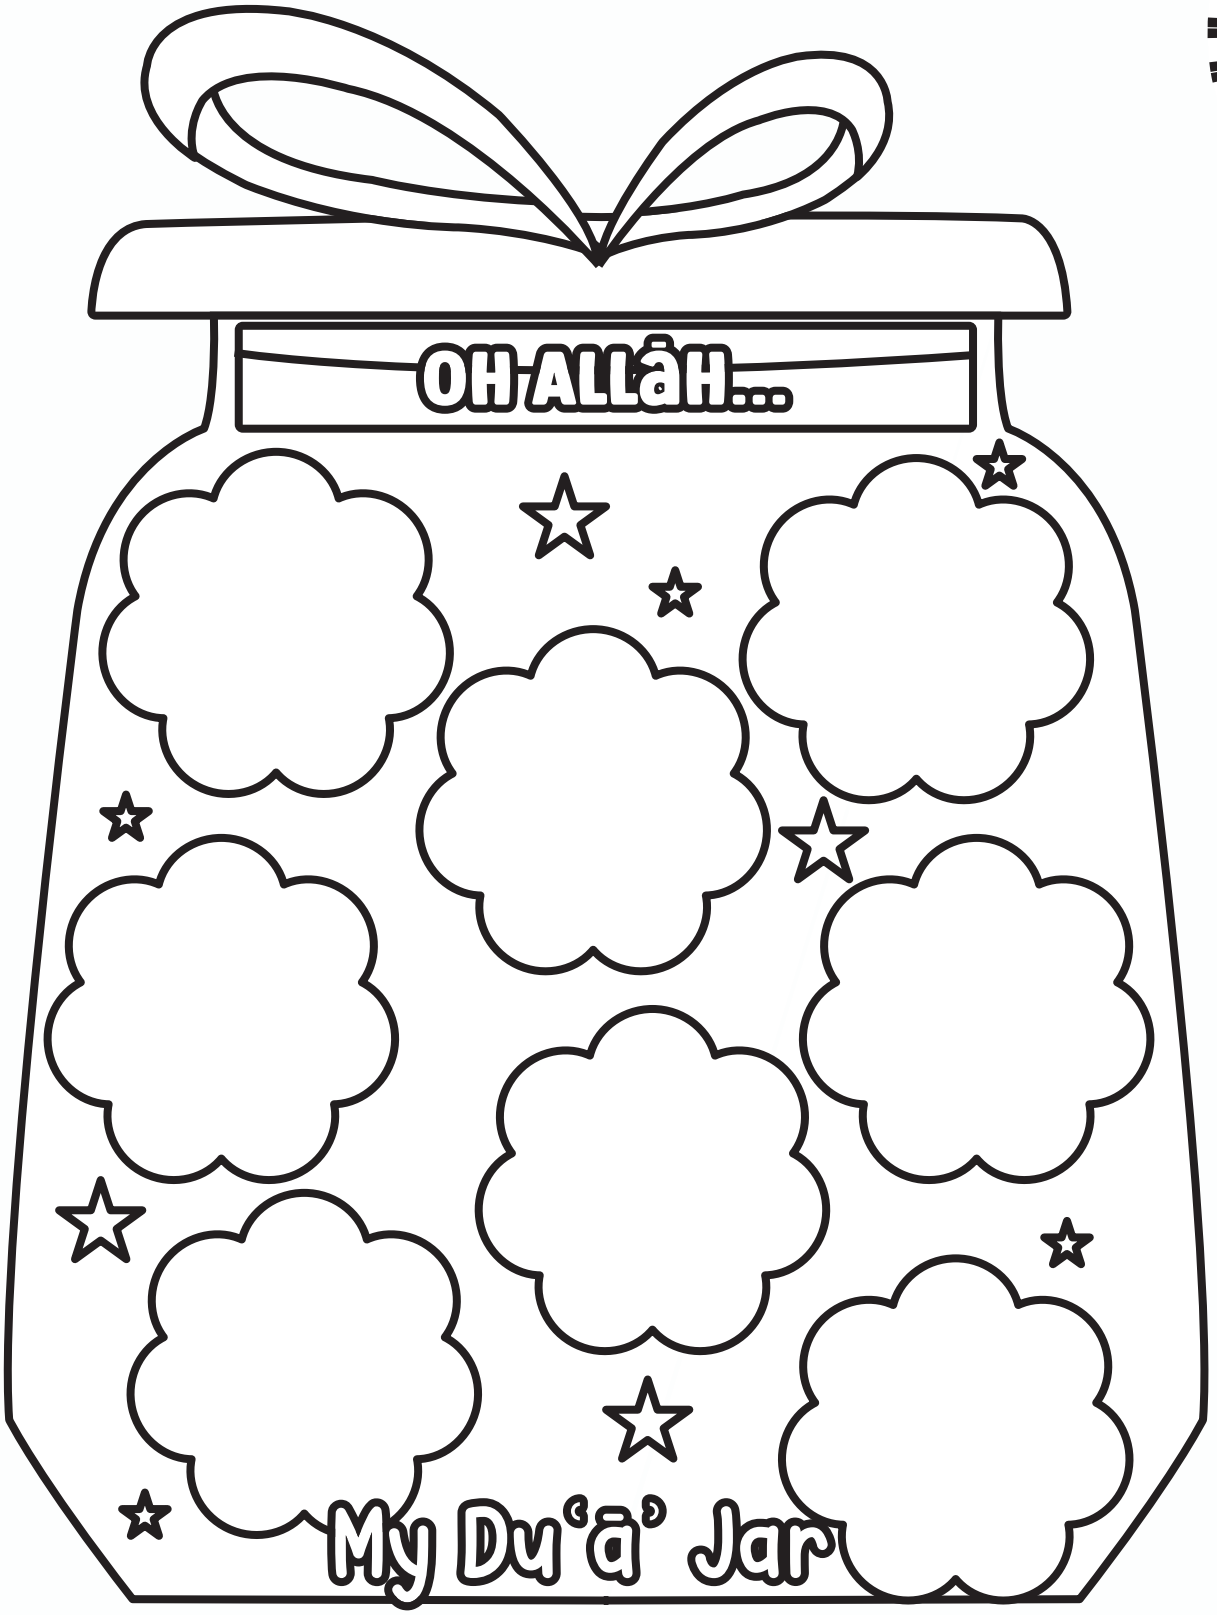

But guess what...
The blessed days of Ḥajj are not only special for the Ḥujjāj!

They are the ten best days of the year and a gift for every Muslim, everywhere!

We need to spend these days worshipping and loving Allāh extra.
We don't need to be in Makkah to enjoy these days. Let's begin!

Bismillāh.

Fill the jar with all the Duʿāʾ you will make in these ten days.

Are you ready to build?

Ḥajj is a very important part of our dīn. Nabī ﷺ said that Islām is built on 5 things. Ḥajj is one of them! Cut out the pieces below and build a house on the next page. Just like how the house won't be a house if one part is missing, our Īmān won't be complete if we do not have any of these pieces.

Fasting

What will happen if a home has no roof to cover it?

Ṣalāh

If a house had no door, nobody would be able to enter and those inside would be trapped !

There is no God besides Allāh, and Muḥammad ﷺ is His messenger.

Zakāh

Ḥajj

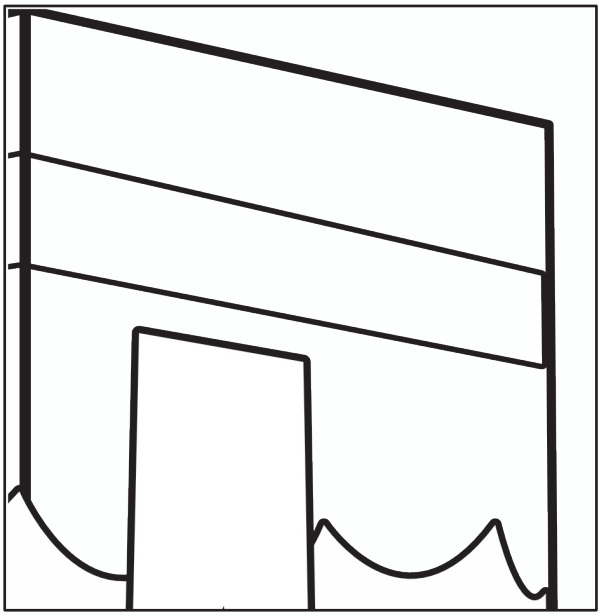

What would happen if you had no windows to see outside?

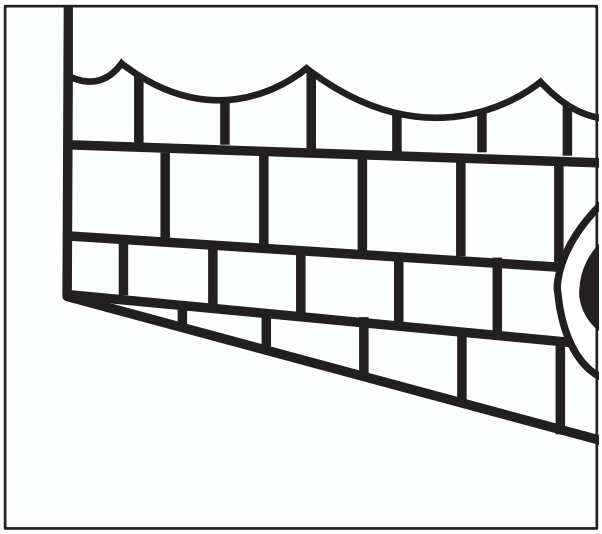

If there are no walls in a house, the house will be unsafe and everyone will be able to see in!

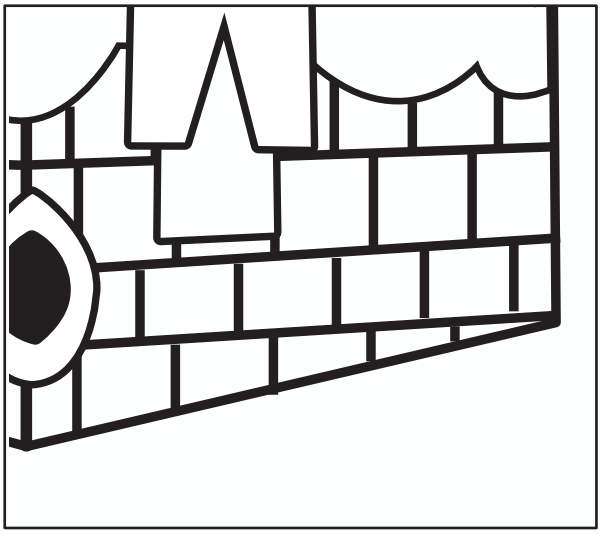

Nabī ﷺ said: "Islām is built upon 5: to say that there is no God besides Allāh and that Muḥammad ﷺ is His messenger, to perform Ṣalāh, to give Zakāh, to go for Ḥajj to the house and to fast in Ramaḍān." (al-Bukhārī)

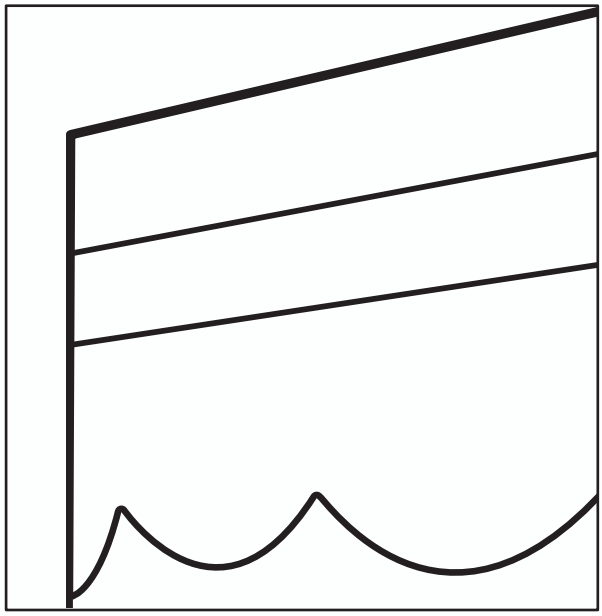

The Kaʿbah

The Kaʿbah is the most special building on earth. It is known as Baytullāh, the house of Allāh, because we worship Allāh only, and His blessings and mercy are the most there. When the Ḥujjāj go for Ḥajj, they visit the Kaʿbah. They have to circle the Kaʿbah 7 times to make Ṭawāf, which is a special ʿIbādah that can only be done at the Kaʿbah.

Cut out the puzzle pieces above and stick them together to build the Kaʿbah on the next page!

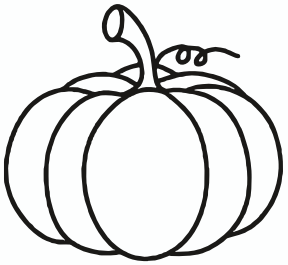

The Ka'ban

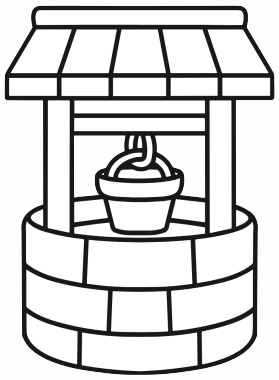

WHO BUILT THE KAʿBAH?

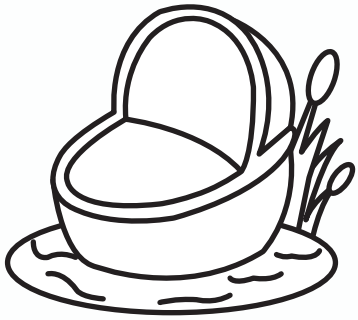

All the Prophets of Allāh ʿAlayhim al-Salām made the journey of Ḥajj. They travelled from far and wide to do so. Ādamʿ Alayhi al-Salām, the first Nabī, was the first person to build the Kaʿbah. What was his wife's name?

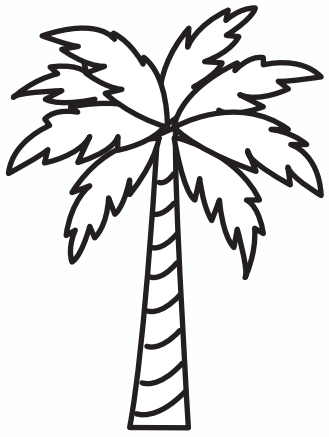

Do you remember the story of Ādam ʿAlayhi al-Salām? Colour in all the objects that fit into his story.

The Friend of Allāh

Many years later, the Kaʿbah was destroyed.

Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām was a very special Nabī sent by Allāh. He is known as Allāh's special friend, Khalīlullah. Allāh asked him to leave his wife, Hājar RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhā, and his baby son, Ismāʿīl, in the dry desert of Makkah.

There were no trees, no water and no people in Makkah! Hājar RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhā and Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhi al-Salām were all alone. Hājar was not worried, because she knew Allāh was with her. Then, little Ismāʿīl began to cry. Oh no- he was hungry! Hājar began to search for something to feed him. Everywhere she looked, all she could find was...
SAND!

She knew Allāh would not leave her alone, so she began to make Duʿāʾ and search. There were two hills- Ṣafā and Marwah. Hājar ran between the two hills, up and down, up and down, searching high and low for something to feed little Ismāʿīl.

Suddenly, a huge, beautiful miracle happened- water, pure, clean and sweet began to gush from the desert sand near baby Ismāʿīl! Hājar cried out, thanking Allāh. The water flowed and flowed...and flowed some more!

'Zam, Zam, stop, stop!' cried Hājar RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhā in delight, trying to make a little pool to store the water.

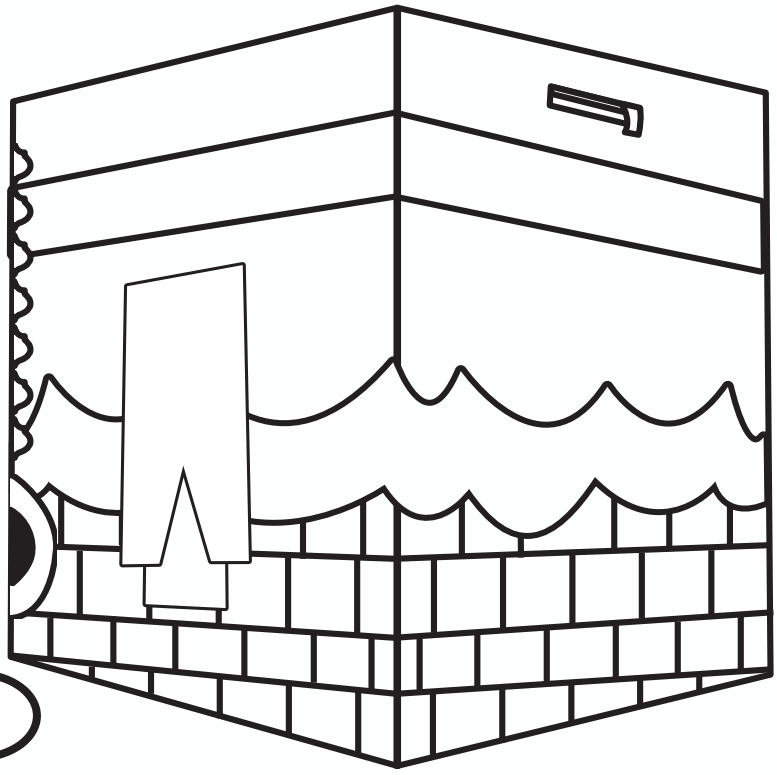

Baby Ismāʿīl drank this pure water, and so did Hājar RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhā. Do you know what is the most amazing thing? The well of Zam-Zam still exists until today, and you and I can drink from the very same water that Allāh sent as a miracle for Ismāʿīl and Hājar! SubḥānAllāh!

WHEN YOU DRINK ZAM-ZAM WATER, RECITE:

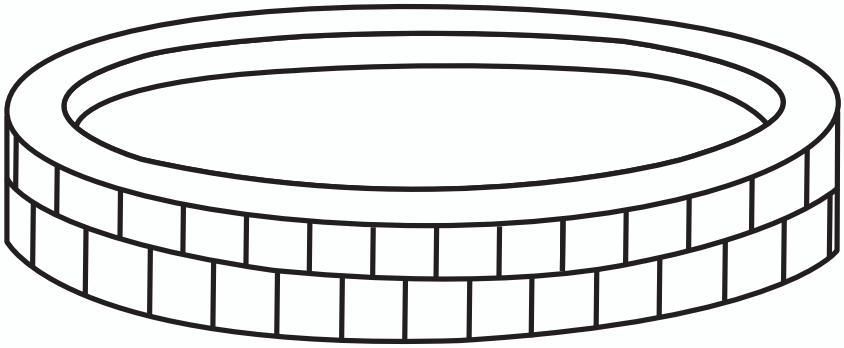

اللَّهمَّ إِنِّي أَسألُكَ عِلمًا نافعًا ورزقًا طيِّبًا وعملًا متقبَّلًا

Oh Allāh, I ask you for beneficial knowledge and pure sustenance and accepted actions. (Musnad Aḥmad)

Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām would come often to Makkah to spend time with Hājar RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhā and Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhi al-Salām. When Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhi al-Salām was older, Allāh commanded Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām to build the Kaʿbah with Ismāʿīl. Allāh sent down a special stone which they stood on whilst building the Kaʿbah. The footprints of Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām are sunken into this stone and can be seen today, inside a golden display near the Kaʿbah. This is called the Maqām Ibrāhīm.

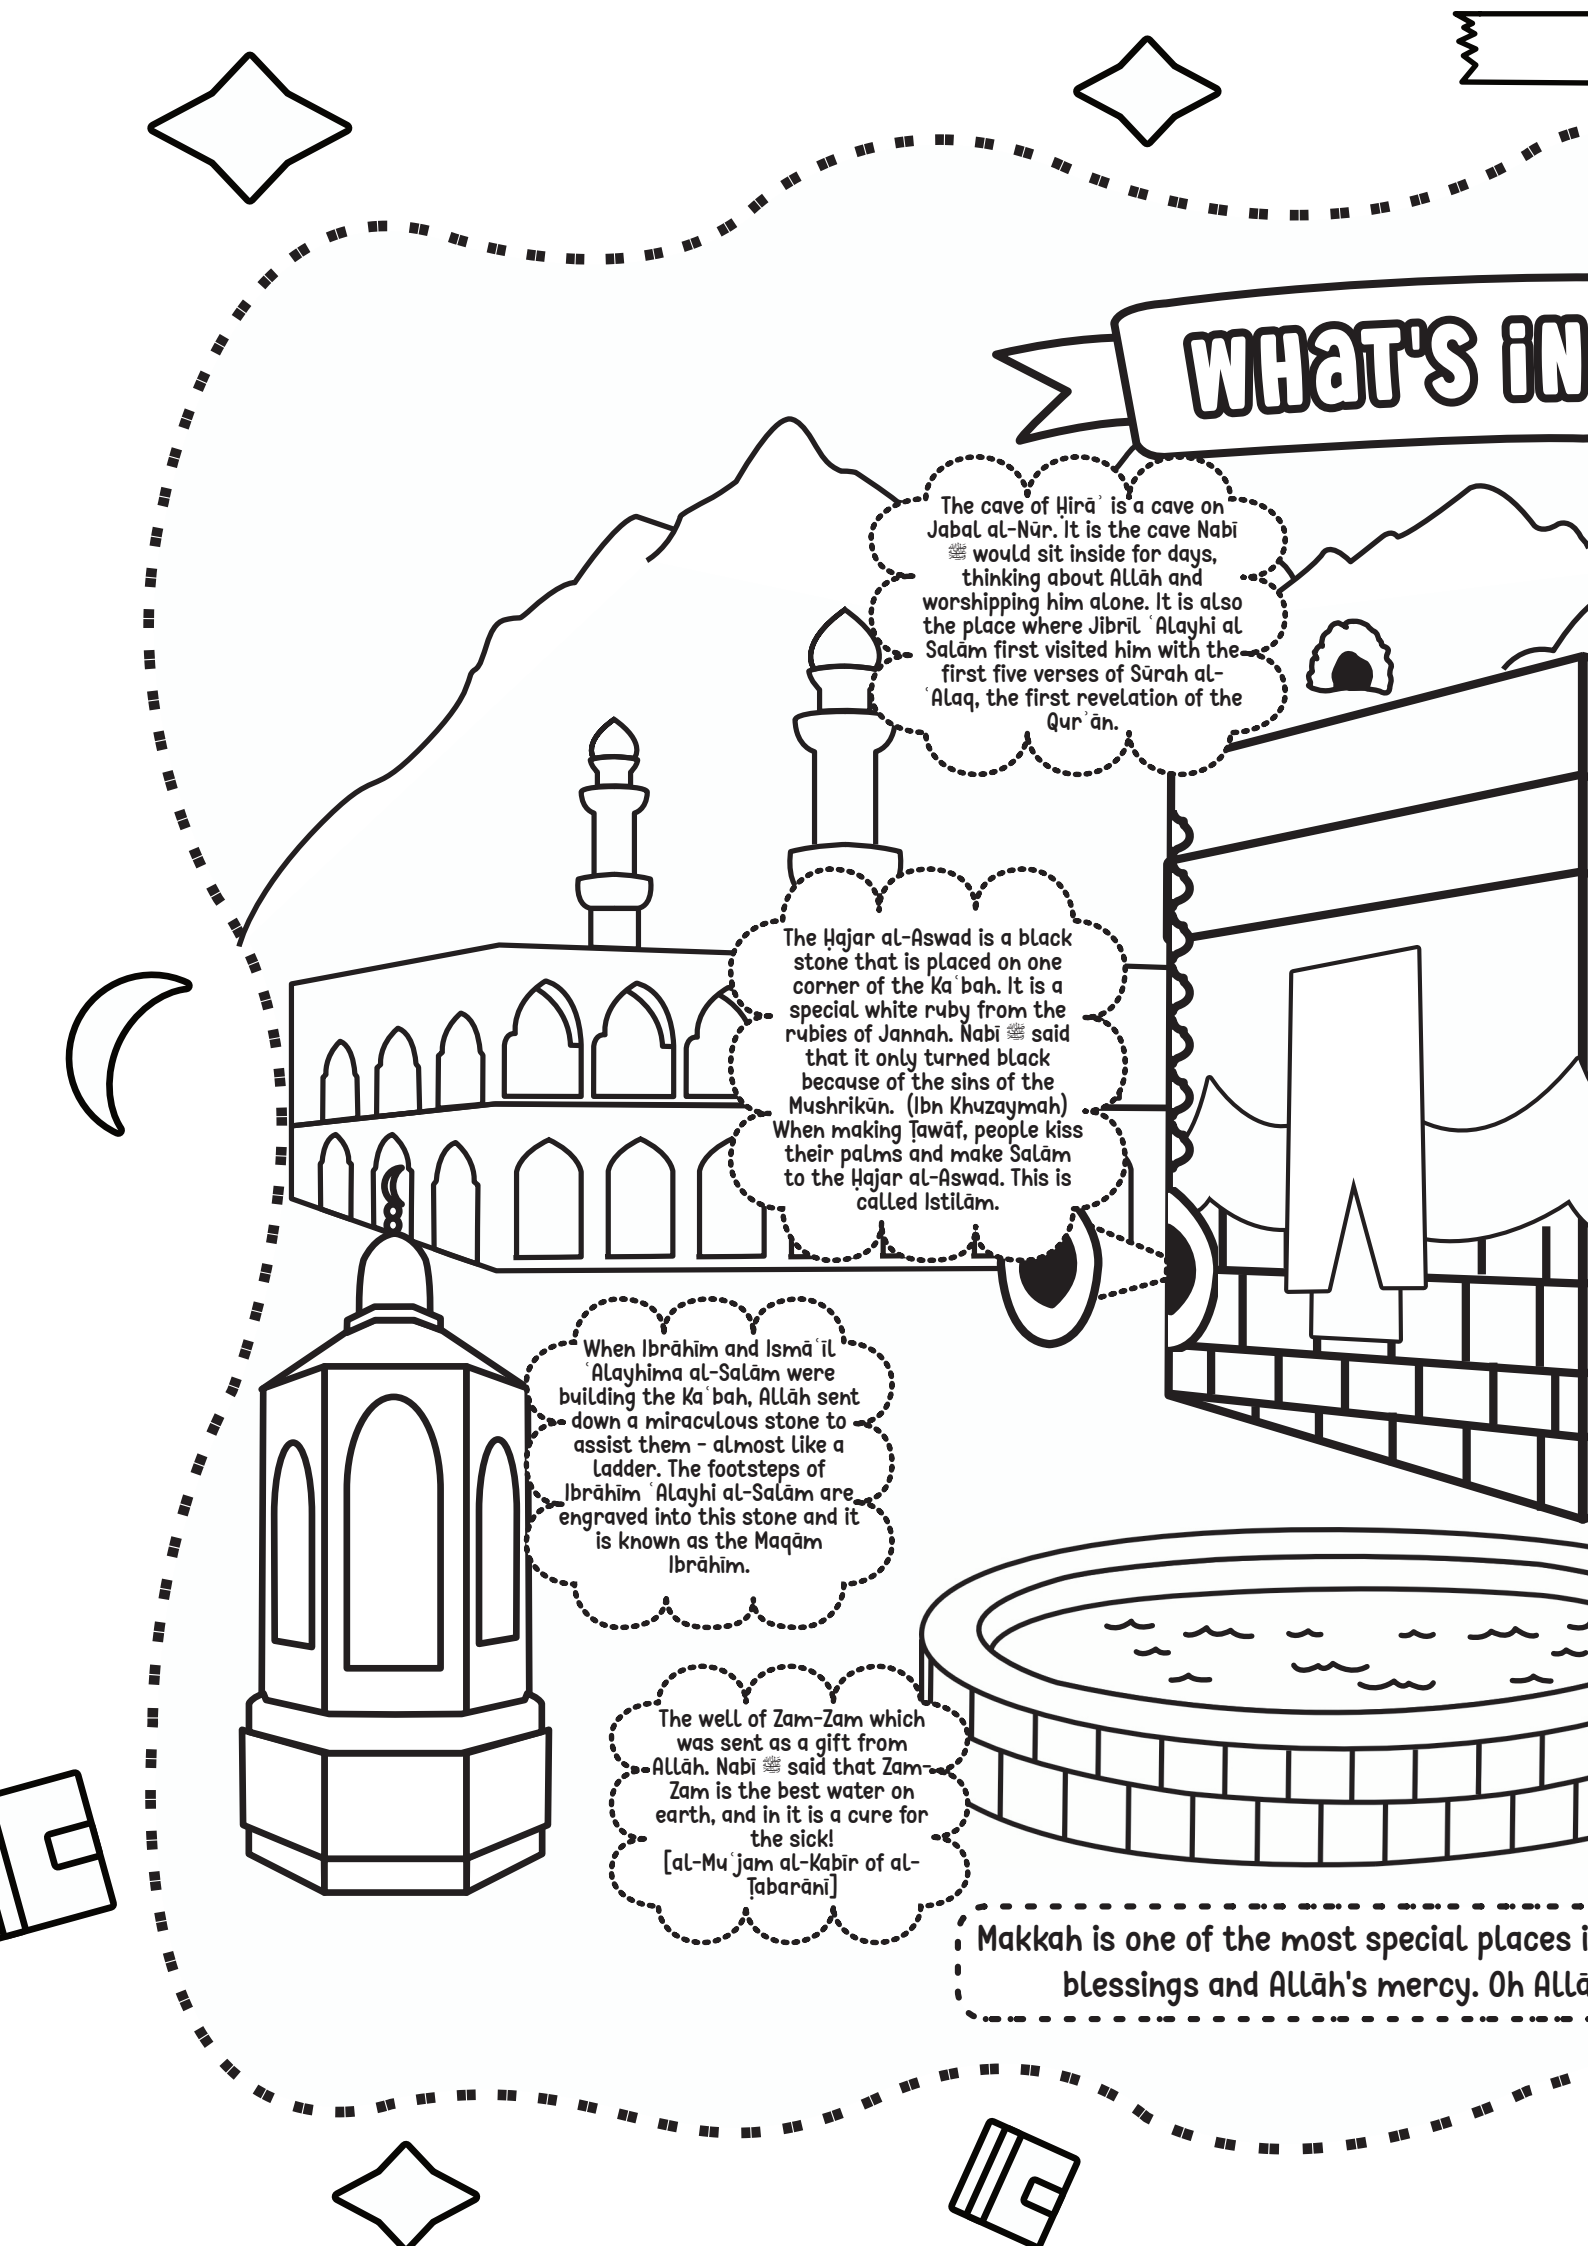

Do you remember what Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al Salām other son's name was?

When they built the Kaʿbah, they made the Duʿāʾ:

رَبَّنَا تَقَبَّلْ مِنَّا إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

WHaT'S iN

The cave of Ḥirāʾ is a cave on Jabal al-Nūr. It is the cave Nabī ﷺ would sit inside for days, thinking about Allāh and worshipping him alone. It is also the place where Jibrīl ʿAlayhi al Salām first visited him with the first five verses of Sūrah al-ʿAlaq, the first revelation of the Qurʾān.

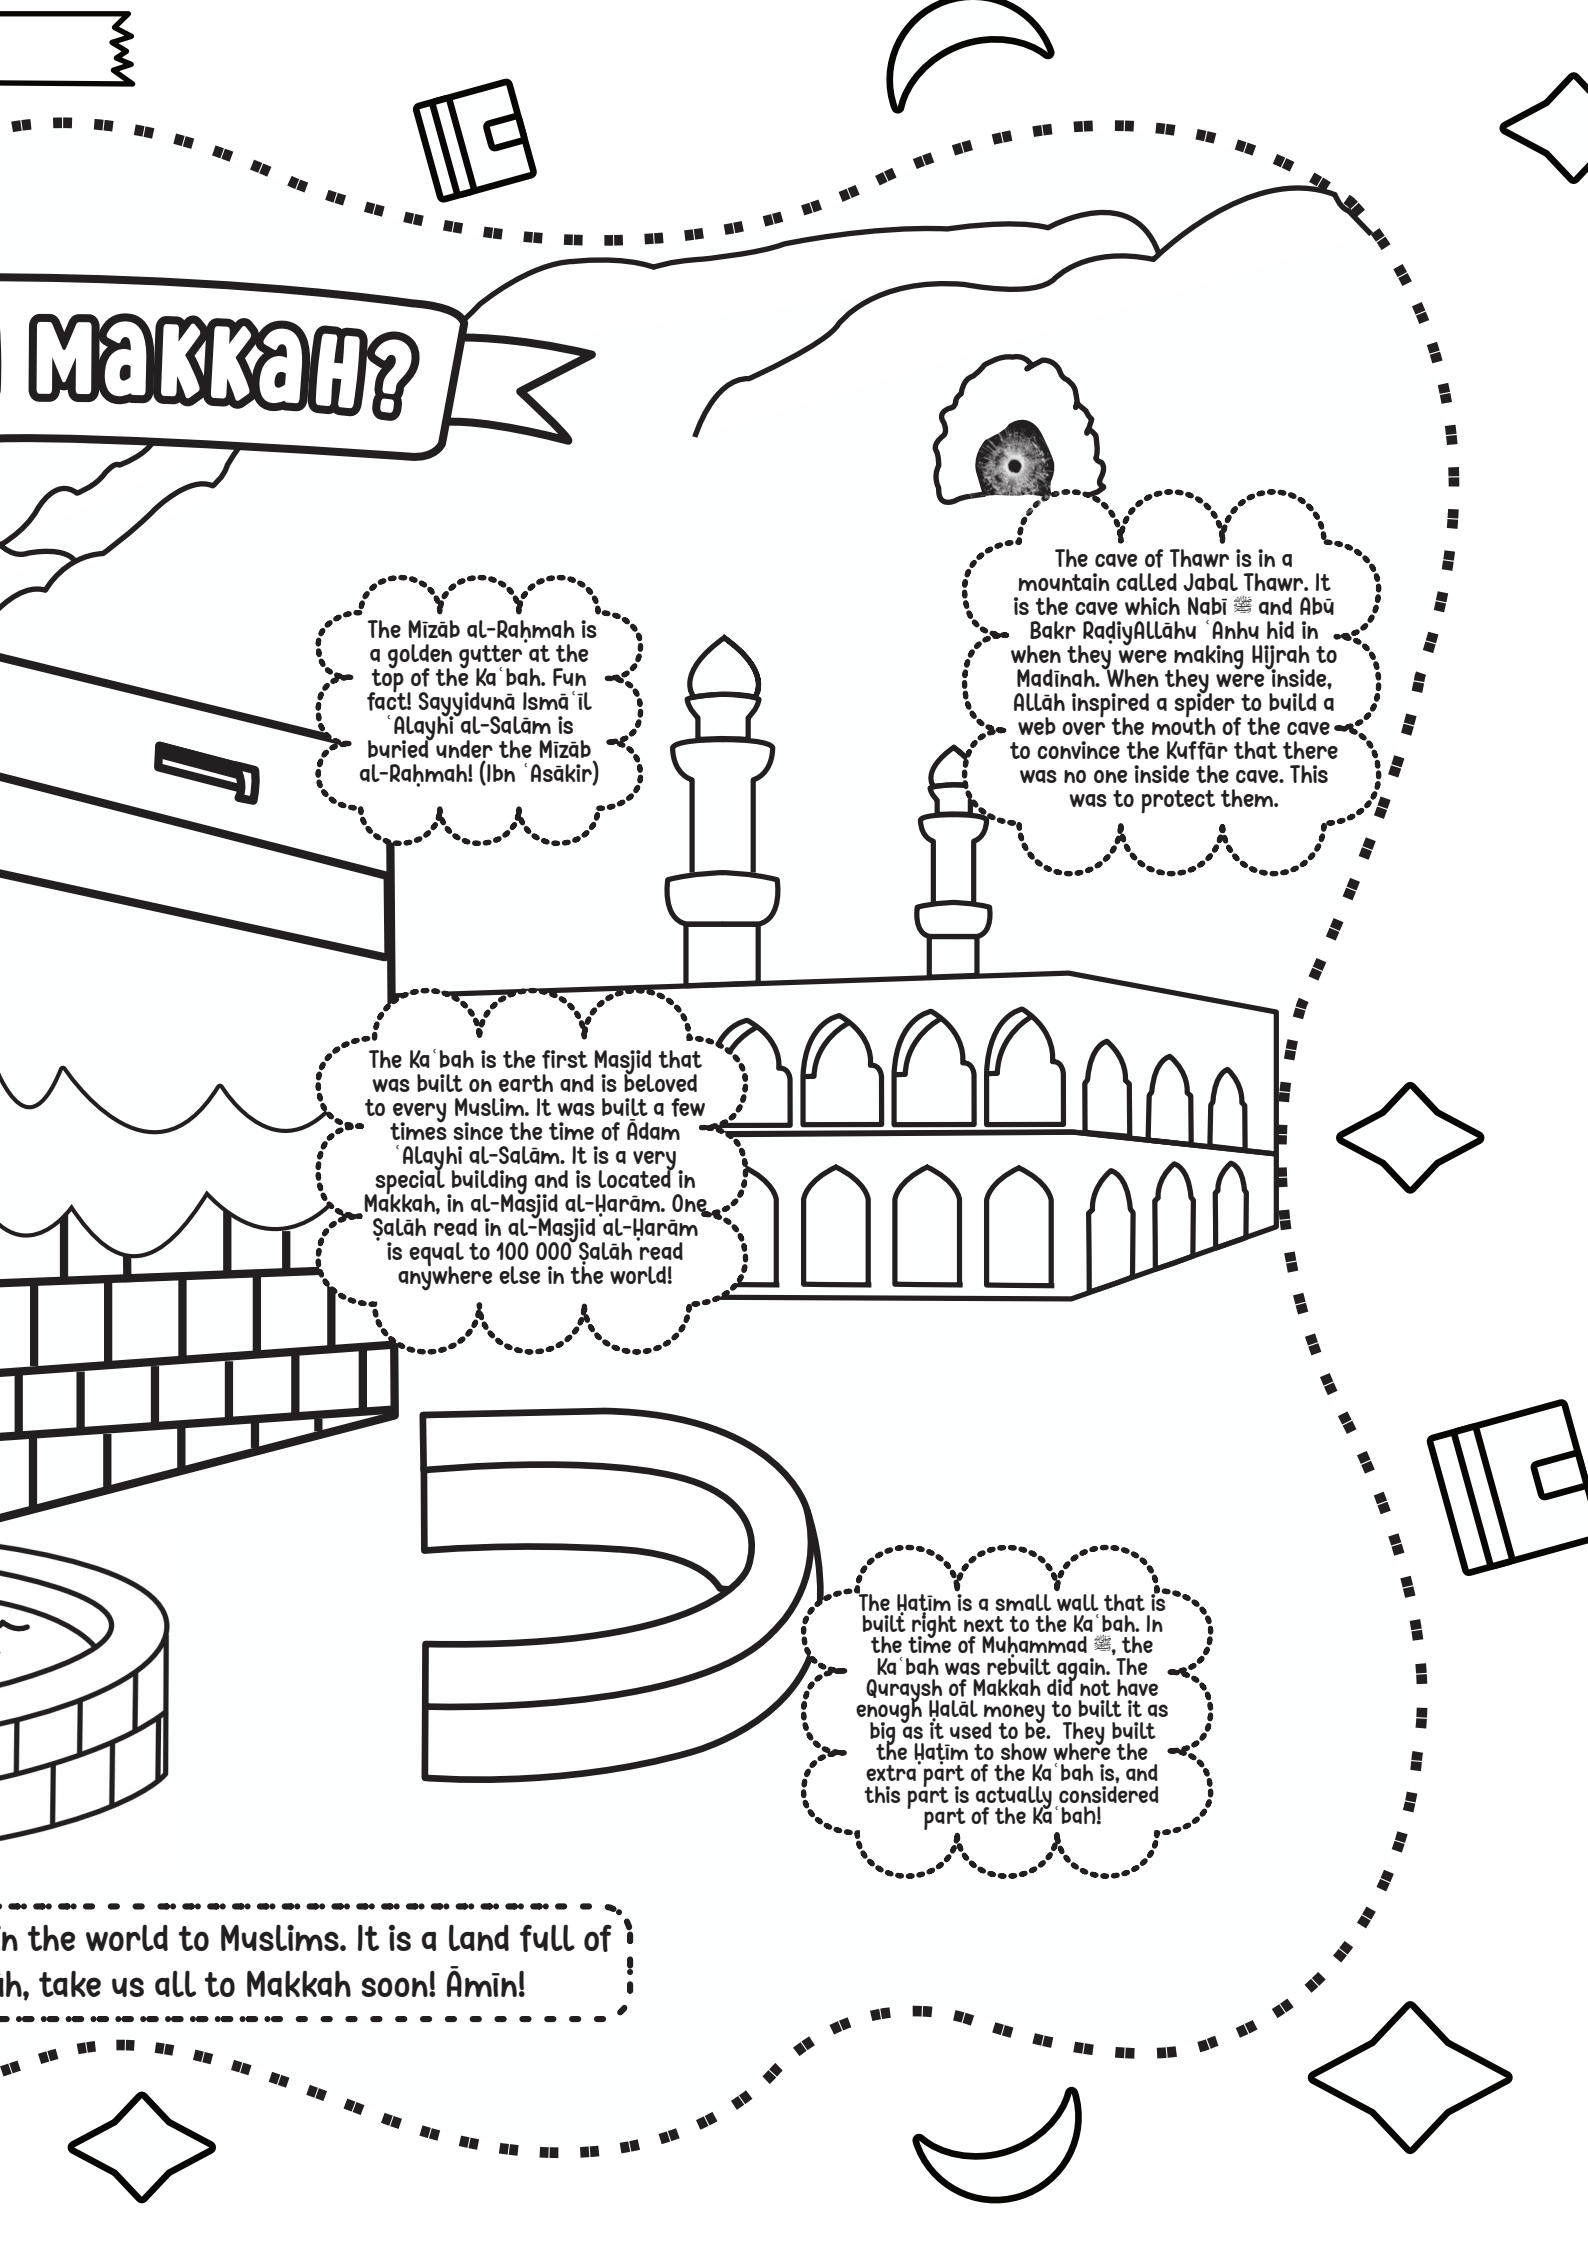

The Ḥajar al-Aswad is a black stone that is placed on one corner of the Kaʿbah. It is a special white ruby from the rubies of Jannah. Nabī ﷺ said that it only turned black because of the sins of the Mushrikūn. (Ibn Khuzaymah) When making Ṭawāf, people kiss their palms and make Salām to the Ḥajar al-Aswad. This is called Istilām.

When Ibrāhīm and Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhima al-Salām were building the Kaʿbah, Allāh sent down a miraculous stone to assist them - almost like a ladder. The footsteps of Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām are engraved into this stone and it is known as the Maqām Ibrāhīm.

The well of Zam-Zam which was sent as a gift from Allāh. Nabī ﷺ said that Zam-Zam is the best water on earth, and in it is a cure for the sick! [al-Muʿjam al-Kabīr of al-Ṭabarānī]

Makkah is one of the most special places i blessings and Allāh's mercy. Oh Allā

Makkah?

The Mīzāb al-Raḥmah is a golden gutter at the top of the Kaʿbah. Fun fact! Sayyidunā Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhi al-Salām is buried under the Mīzāb al-Raḥmah! (Ibn ʿAsākir)

The cave of Thawr is in a mountain called Jabal Thawr. It is the cave which Nabī ﷺ and Abū Bakr RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhu hid in when they were making Hijrah to Madīnah. When they were inside, Allāh inspired a spider to build a web over the mouth of the cave to convince the Kuffār that there was no one inside the cave. This was to protect them.

The Kaʿbah is the first Masjid that was built on earth and is beloved to every Muslim. It was built a few times since the time of Ādam ʿAlayhi al-Salām. It is a very special building and is located in Makkah, in al-Masjid al-Ḥarām. One Ṣalāh read in al-Masjid al-Ḥarām is equal to 100 000 Ṣalāh read anywhere else in the world!

The Ḥaṭīm is a small wall that is built right next to the Kaʿbah. In the time of Muḥammad ﷺ, the Kaʿbah was rebuilt again. The Quraysh of Makkah did not have enough Ḥalāl money to built it as big as it used to be. They built the Ḥaṭīm to show where the extra part of the Kaʿbah is, and this part is actually considered part of the Kaʿbah!

The Ram From Jannah

We remember Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām throughout the ten days of Ḥajj. We especially remember him on the day of ʿĪd al-Adhā. Do you know why?

Well, Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām was a very special prophet of Allāh. Allāh tested him many times and in many ways. Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām passed every single test! One day, Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām had a dream. He saw that Allāh was instructing him to sacrifice his little son Ismāʿīl, who was very, very beloved to him.

Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām heart felt sad and heavy. But, he loved Allāh more than anything else. If Allāh told him to do something, he definitely would. Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām was a loving father. Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhi al-Salām loved him to bits! Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām went to little Ismāʿīl and told him to come with him - they were going somewhere.

Excitedly, Ismāʿīl got ready to go with his father. They climbed up a hill where Shayṭān came to them. He tried to stop Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām from obeying Allāh. Oh, Shayṭān the menace! Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām did not listen to him. He bent down and picked up some stones and threw them at Shayṭān to chase him away.

When they reached the top of the hill, Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām felt very sad. His eyes filled with tears. He gently explained to little Ismāʿīl what Allāh had commanded him to do. Ismāʿīl loved Allāh very much. He wanted to please Allāh, too. He told his father that if Allāh had commanded him to do that- he should do it! SubḥānAllāh.

Gently, lovingly, Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām lay his beloved little boy down. He held a knife to his neck. He began to move the knife. Suddenly, Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām heard some voices exclaiming, "Allāhu Akbar! Allāhu Akbar!'
Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām then said, "Lā Ilāha Illā Allāh wa-Allāhu Akbar!"
The angels moved Ismāʿīl away and replaced him with a ram from Jannah!
Little Ismāʿīl realised what had happened and in reply he said, "Allāhu Akbar Wa Lillāhi al-Ḥamd." SubḥānAllāh! What an amazing story, and what amazing prophets of Allāh. When we make ʾUḍḥiyyah, we are remembering the obedience and love of ʾIbrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām and Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhi al-Salām, and showing Allāh we love and obey Him, too.

Takbīr al-Tashrīq

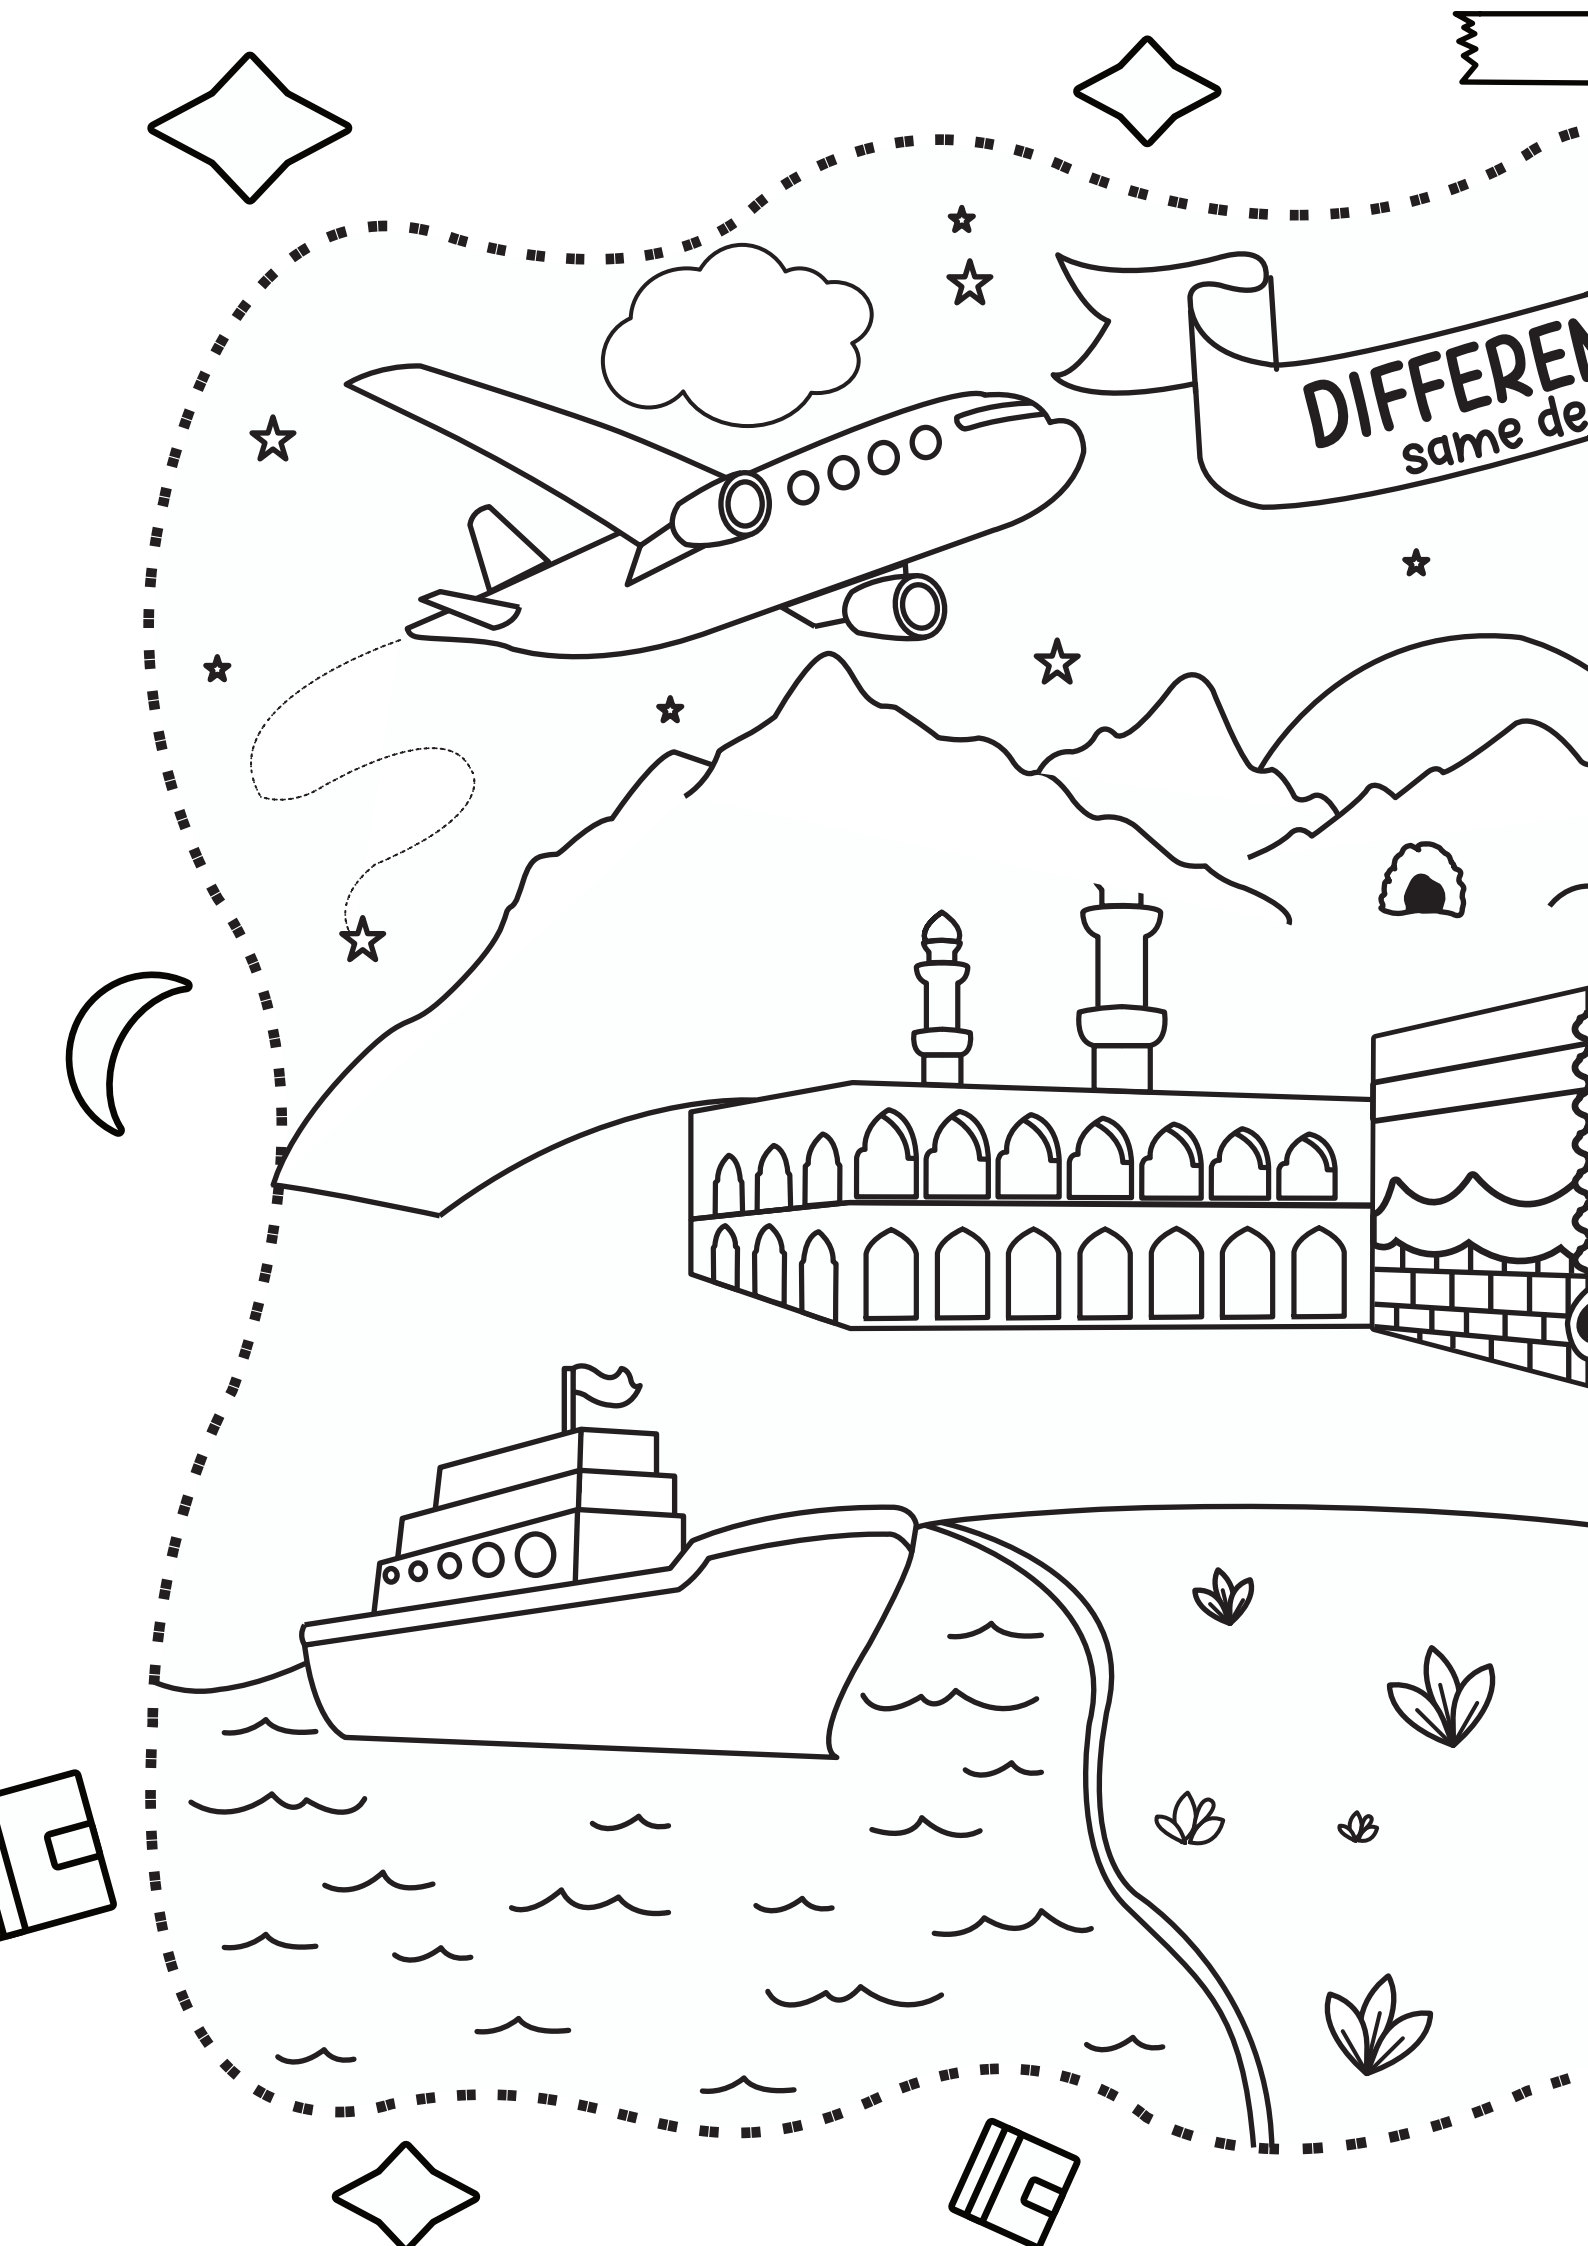

These are the beautiful words said in the story of Ibrāhīm and Ismāʿīl ʿAlayhima al-Salām. From the Fajr of the 9th of Dhu al Hijjah until ʿAṣr of the 13th of Dhu al Hijjah, we have to recite the Takbīr al-Tashrīq after every Farḍ Ṣalāh. Stick this near your place of Ṣalāh so you remember!

THE BEAUTIFUL TALBIYAH

There is a special Duʿāʾ the Ḥujjāj make on their journey of Ḥajj. Allāh has given them a really special invitation to make Ḥajj. When they recite the Talbiyah, they are replying to Allāh's invitation with love and gratitude.

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ،
لَبَّيْكَ لاَ شَرِيكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ،

The Ḥujjāj walk together in their special clothes called Iḥrām, with excited hearts and lovingly they say the Talbiyah. It echoes through the mountains of Makkah and the desert sand, their voices one. and their love for Allāh filling their hearts.

Follow the Talbiyah Sound!

Ḥārith is lost near Mount Ṣafā! He needs to go to Minā. Help him find the correct path by following the labbayk sounds to reach the tents of Minā.

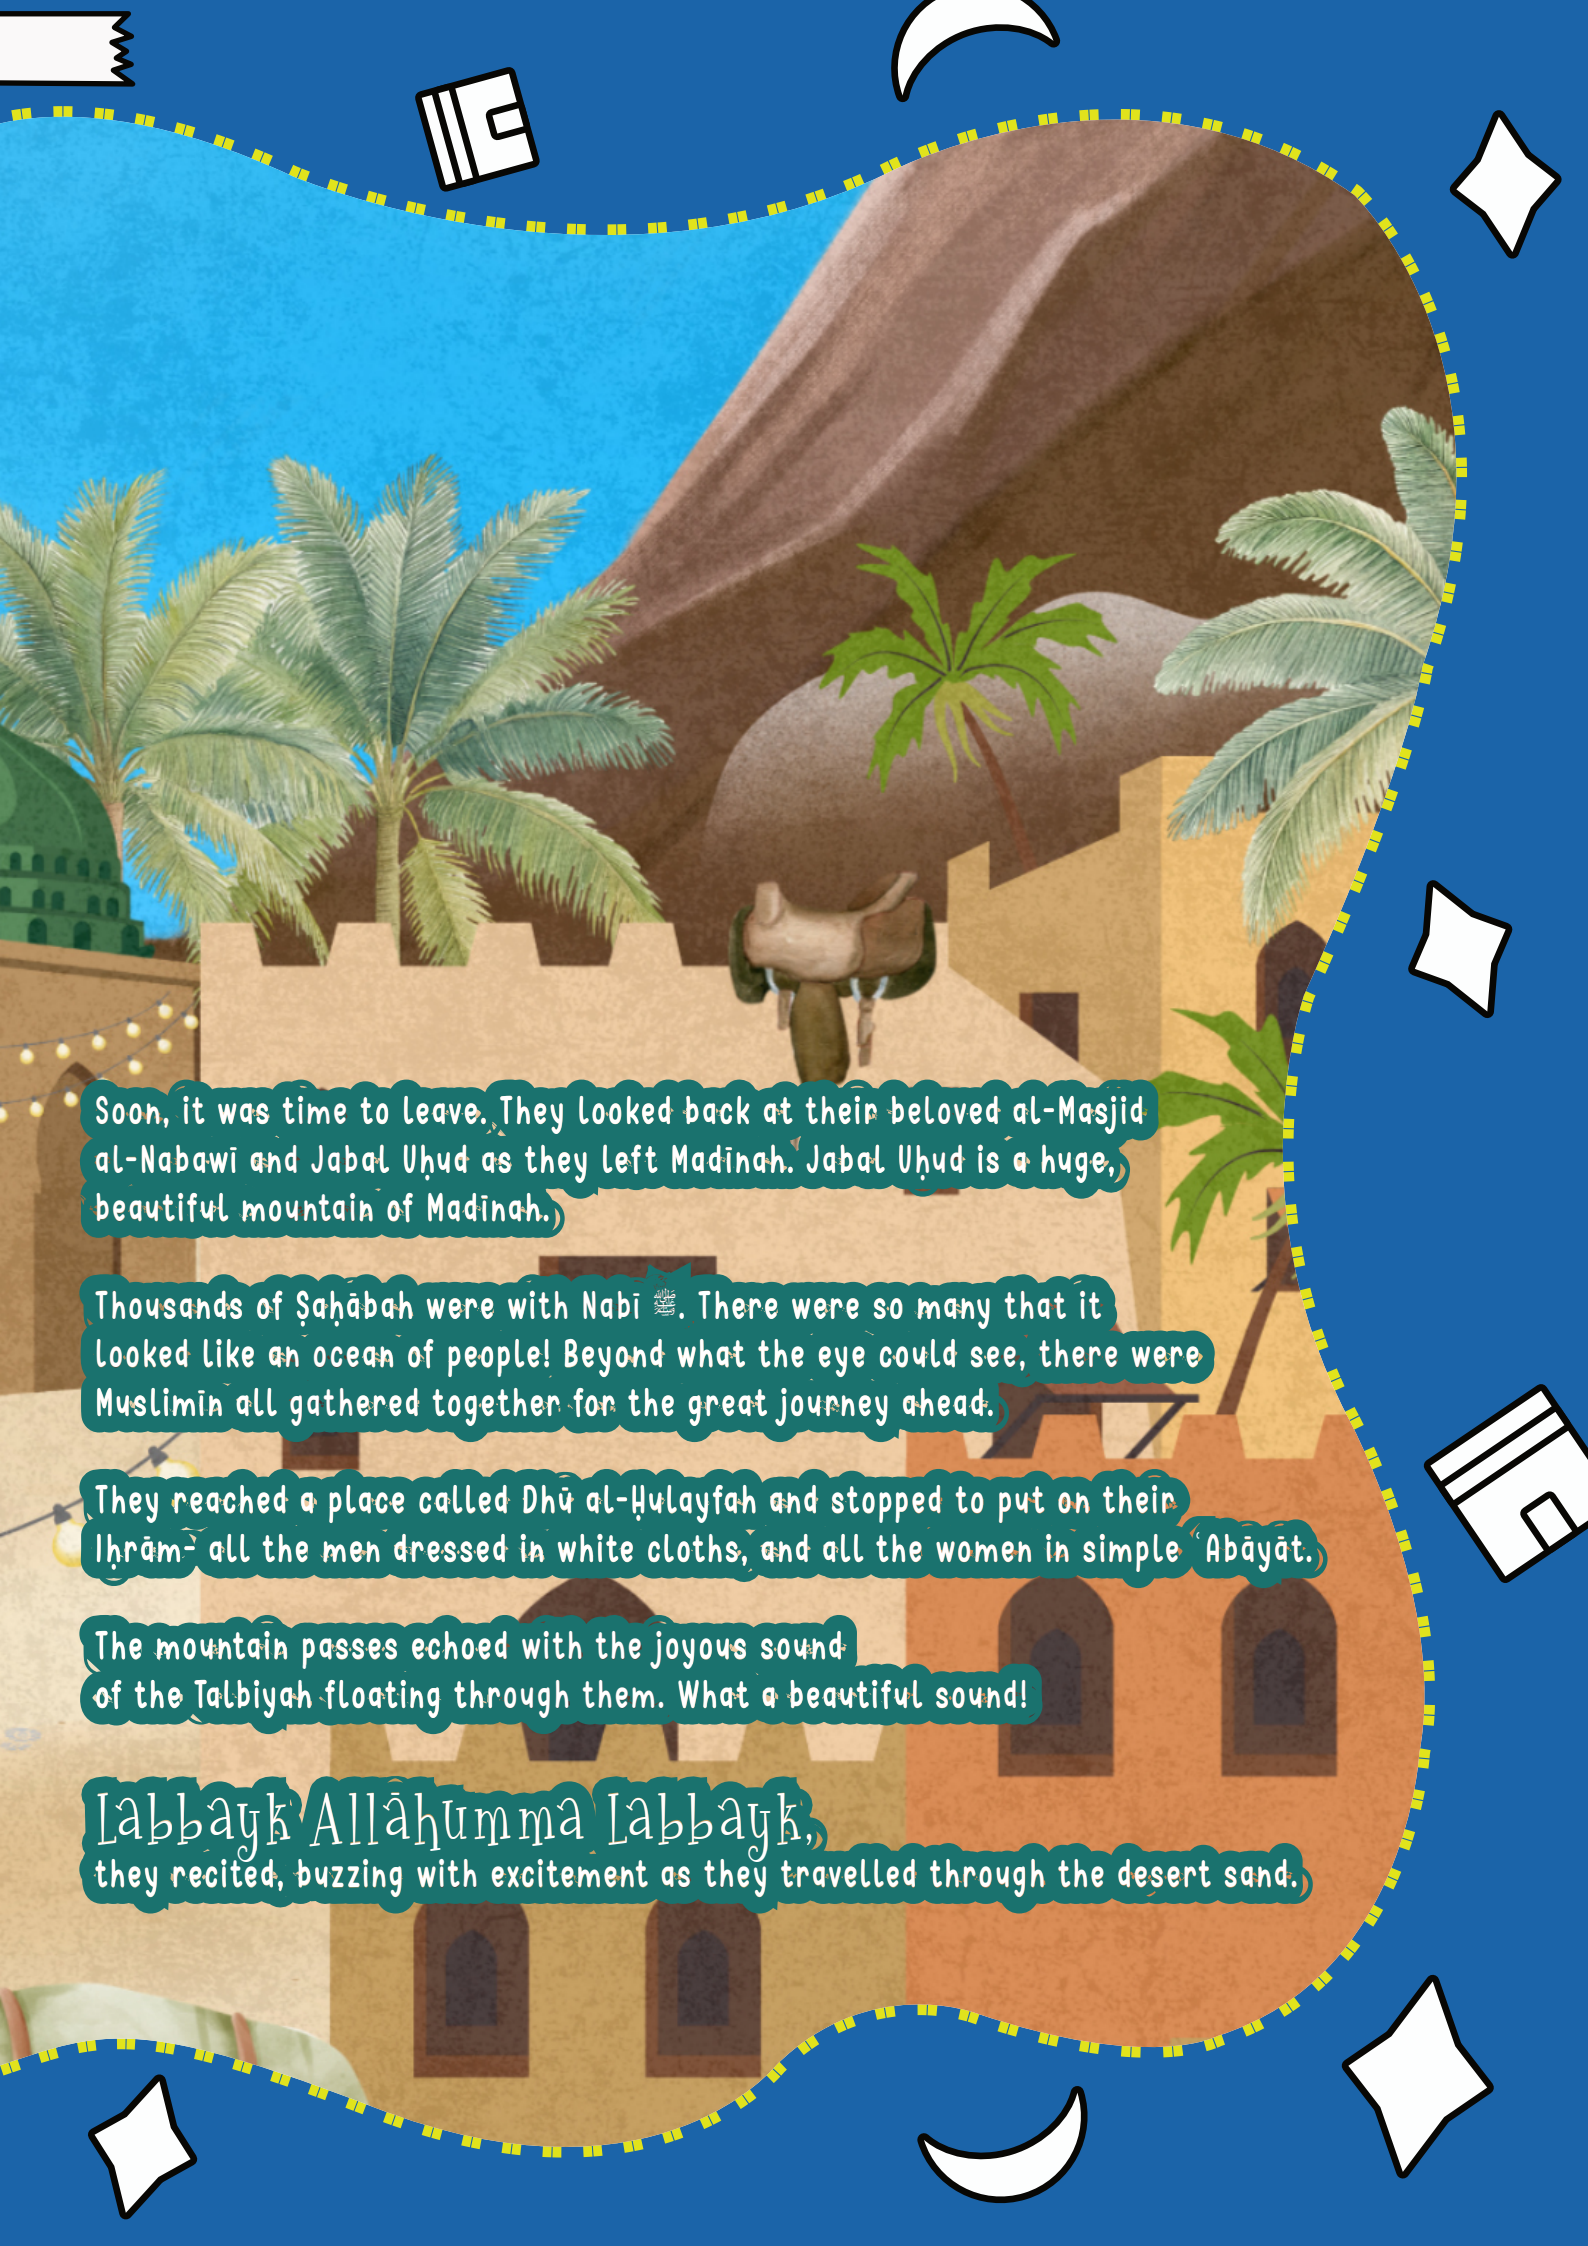

"There is no Muslim who says the Talbiyah except that - on his right and left, until the end of the land, from here to there - the rocks, or trees, or mud say the Talbiyah."
al-Tirmidhī

Almost 1500 years ago, something very special happened.
After spending 9 years in Madīnah, Muḥammad ﷺ was going back to Makkah to make Ḥajj!
The message spread through Madīnah excitedly, and then further and further until all of Arabia and beyond heard.
"Sayyidunā Muḥammad ﷺ is going for Ḥajj!" the Muslimīn gasped with joy.
As soon as they heard, they packed bags and hopped onto their horses and camels, making their way to Madīnah.

The valleys around Arabia were full of life.
The mountains filled with people travelling. There were tents everywhere.
People came from near cities, from far places and from deserts and valleys. They came walking, riding and hurrying to meet the caravan of Muḥammad ﷺ and make Ḥajj with him.
Their hearts were beating with love and joy.
Oh, how exciting it was!

Madinah was busy. The markets were full of people buying their goodies for the journey ahead. Bags were being packed, horses and camels were being loaded and water skins were filled.
Their saddles were all set and ready for the trek to Makkah.
Madinah had never seen so many people before!
The family of Nabi ﷺ were excitedly preparing to go to Makakah. All his ﷺ dear wives were coming with, too. Muhammad ﷺ was going to ride his favourite camel, Qaṣwā, whom he loved very much. She was super fast and very sweet!

Soon, it was time to leave. They looked back at their beloved al-Masjid al-Nabawī and Jabal Uḥud as they left Madīnah. Jabal Uḥud is a huge, beautiful mountain of Madīnah.

Thousands of Ṣaḥābah were with Nabī ﷺ. There were so many that it looked like an ocean of people! Beyond what the eye could see, there were Muslimīn all gathered together for the great journey ahead.

They reached a place called Dhū al-Ḥulayfah and stopped to put on their Iḥrām- all the men dressed in white cloths, and all the women in simple Abāyāt.

The mountain passes echoed with the joyous sound of the Talbiyah floating through them. What a beautiful sound!

Labbayk Allāhumma Labbayk, they recited, buzzing with excitement as they travelled through the desert sand.

The journey to Makkah was long. There were miles and miles of sand- so much sand that it was all they saw when they looked to their right, to their left, to the front and behind!
No one felt tired. They were too excited! The sun shone brightly through the day. Nabī ﷺ recited the praises of Allāh beautifully. The Ṣaḥābah RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhum repeated them, looking at him ﷺ with love and delight.
The stars shone brightly through the night as they camped in their tents. The little children from the Ṣaḥābah RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhum were with, too. They were a part of this great journey. Some of them, like Ḥasan and Ḥusayn RaḍiyAllāhu ʿAnhumā were there, too, praising Allāh and joining in the joy.

The sand dunes stretched as far as their eyes could see.
And there were so many people it was impossible to see the ends of the group! On their way, they passed by a valley called Rawḥā.
Nabī ﷺ told them that 70 prophets of Allāh passed through there and read Ṣalāh. They stopped and did the same, too.
Nearing Makkah, they crossed through another valley named ʿUsfān.
Nabī ﷺ told them that the two prophets Hūd and Ṣāliḥ ʿAlayhimā al-Salām had also passed through there.

They reached special Makkah al-Mukarramah after a few days. They saw the precious Ka'bah- how they loved it! They looked at the huge, towering mountains of Makkah. How beautiful they were!
The well of Zam-Zam gushed with pure, sweet water. How delicious it was!

How many Ambiyā' 'Alayhim al-Salām had looked at those very same mountains and passed through them? How many Ambiyā' 'Alayhim al-Salām had also drank from the well of Zam-Zam? They felt so special to be there with the final messenger of Allāh, Muḥammad ﷺ.

The days of Ḥajj came. Muḥammad ﷺ was a perfect teacher. He performed Ḥajj and showed them exactly what to do. They listened carefully to every word he said. They copied every action he did. This was their beloved Prophet ﷺ, and our beloved Prophet ﷺ. Whatever he did, we all want to do, too.

Their hearts were soft and sometimes their eyes filled with tears. Not out of sadness, but out of joy and thanks to Allāh. They watched him throw stones at the Jamarāt, just as Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām had thrown at Shayṭān hundreds of years before.

They stood beside our beloved Nabī ﷺ as he stood for hours making Duʿā' at ʿArafah. When Nabī ﷺ gave his final sermon, their hearts became full of sadness and grief. They realised that soon, Nabī ﷺ would pass away. They cried and cried, the thought of living without Nabī ﷺ making them very sad. When the days of ʿĪd came, they spent their ʿĪd in his ﷺ company. He ﷺ slaughtered 63 camels all on his own!

Do you know how many Ṣaḥābah RadhiyAllāhu Anhum were there? More than 100 000 of them! They were overjoyed when the days of Ḥajj set in. When it was over, their hearts felt sad and heavy. How amazing it was to make Ḥajj with Muḥammad ﷺ. How painful it was for them to bid farewell to him ﷺ.
Muḥammad ﷺ, his beloved family and all the Ṣaḥābah RadhiyAllāhu Anhum who were from Madīnah, made the same journey back home. The mountains and valleys were no longer filled with the Talbiyah, but with praises and thanks to Allāh.

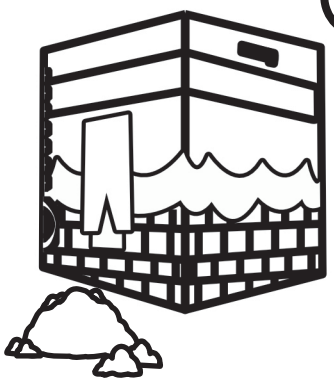

Muḥammad ﷺ loved Makkah a lot, but Madīnah was his special home. As they saw Jabal Uḥud, Muḥammad ﷺ said that he loved the huge mountain- and this mountain loved them too! They entered Madīnah with happy hearts, grateful to Allāh and full of love for Sayyidunā Muḥammad ﷺ.

We were not there, but we learn about this beautiful journey and love to read about it.
Oh Allāh, please grant us the company of Muḥammad ﷺ on the day of Qiyāmah and in Jannah!

THE DAYS

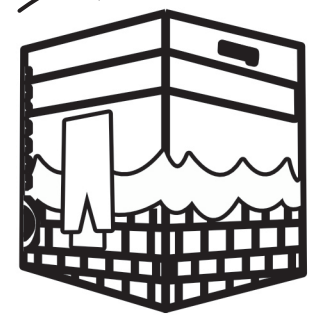

1 Wear the Iḥrām and arrive in Makkah. Make Ṭawāf Qudūm and Saʿī. Ḥajj is about to begin- how incredibly exciting!

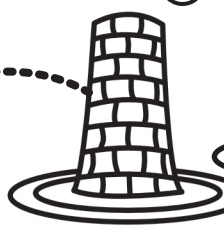

DAY ONE

2 Make your way to the tents of Minā. Oh, what a beautiful sight! Spend the night here as you prepare for an exciting day tomorrow.

DAY THREE

5 Today you will take your 7 pebbles and go back to Minā. Here, you will find 3 large pillars called the Jamarāt. They are built at the places Shayṭān tried to stop Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām. Throw the pebbles at the Jamarāt in a practice called Ramiy, just like Ibrāhīm ʿAlayhi al-Salām did all those years ago.

6 Now you will make Dhabaḥ, which means you will slaughter an animal for Allāh's pleasure. Thereafter, men will remove their hair and women will trim their hair. After this, you can remove your clothing of Iḥrām! Make your way back to Makkah and perform Ṭawāf and Saʿī.

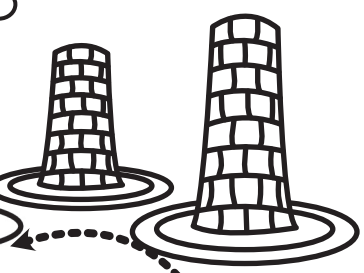

OF ḤAJJ

3 This is the most important day of your Ḥajj, because Ḥajj is not Ḥajj without ʿArafah! You will do wuquf here- this means you will spend hours here standing and making Duʿāʾ. How special! It is a day just to spend asking in Duʿāʾ.

DAY TWO

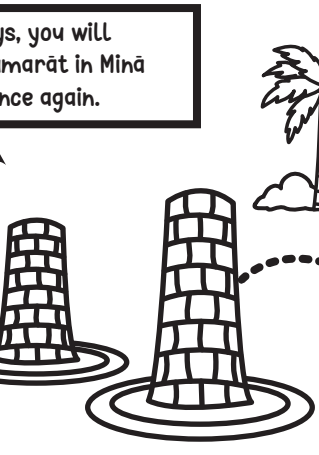

4 Look up at the sky... do you see the millions of stars that Allāh made? SubhanAllāh! You are now in a place called Muzdalifah. You will spend the night sleeping here under the stars. Pick 7 pebbles up from here- you will soon need them!

8 Make your way to Makkah once more. Make Ṭawāf again- this is called Ṭawāf al Widā. Alḥamdulillāh, you have now completed Ḥajj! How special!

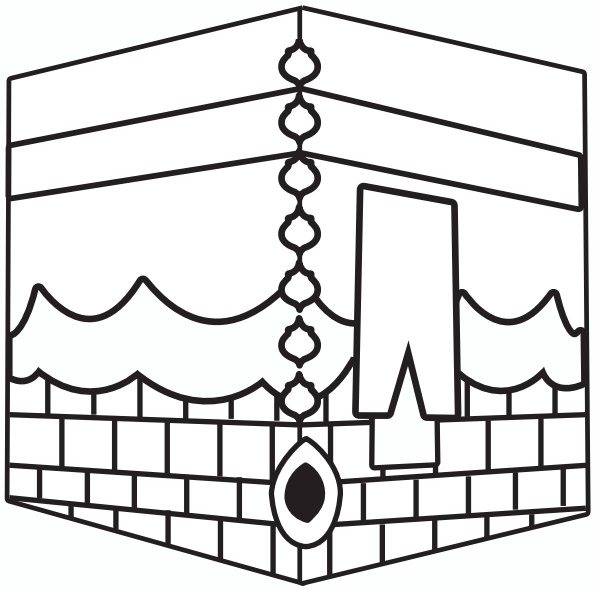

Iḥrām

Iḥrām is a special state Muslims enter when making Ḥajj or ʿUmrah. There are certain rules about what they can and cannot do- for example, they cannot cut their nails or use perfumes. Men wear two white clothes and do not cover their head. Women wear a simple abaya and scarf. When we are in the state of Iḥrām, we constantly say the words of the Talbiyah! Labbayk Allāhumma Labbayk.
